Herrayman, January 19, 1852. Dr. Branson:—I take the liberty and fell it to be my duty to recommend to all persons suffering from disease of the stemach and bowels, your Alterative Compound, as a very separator medicine. My son, aged 15 years, had been under medical treatment about five years for disspessin and diar-rises—when having almost despaired of his recovery, I con-cluded to thy your Alterative, two bottles of which, I believe, entirely cored him. MICAJAH CAYCE.

Henryville, Oct. 17, 1861 Dr. Berosce:—Some time has capsed since I gave a cer-tificate that my wife had been greatly benefited by your Alterative Compound. I now take pleasure in saving to the public, that my wife had for three or har years been subject to the worst kind of spells of cramp in the stomach from dyspapsia. I had tried or several whom I thought to be the best playsicians in the place and a great many different medicines, with momentary relief. Bung persuaded to try your alterative compound, I did so—and I am happy to say that it has entirely cured her; and I would conscientiously recommend it to all persons suffering from diseases of the liverand dyspapsia.

It never fails to cure the worst possible cases of bowel complaints in a few hours. It is purely regetable, and taken in almost any quantity is perfectly harmless.

Most remedies in use for Diarrhea, lock up the pores of the intestinal canal and only for a time alleviate the disease by preventing the expulsion of the aerid fluid, which will almost invariably pour torth again, with increased violence, though nature sometimes overcomes the avil, while the remdy alone hears off the prise. Not so with the Premiery.

Symp. Its ingredientare the natural antidotes to these complaints. It changes the nature of the fluids, and causes their explusion in a mitural manner. It does not leave them to inflame the surface of the stomach and bowels, but attacking the cause, it neutralizes them, and the disease immediately subsides. The operation of the Syrup is threefold. It im-mediately reaches the seat of the disease and arrests its course; it instantly souther pain and restores the system to perfect quiet. The inflamed surfaces of the stomach and intestines are guarded against further violence by the neutralization of their acrid contents, and thus the body resumes it unfural healthy functions.
